

CHAPTER
10

Section 2

RETEACHING ACTIVITY Self-Rule for British Colonies

Determining Main Ideas The following questions deal with the gradual development of self-rule in Britain's colonies. Answer them in the space provided.

1. How did Britain's relationship with its colonies in Africa and Asia differ from that with its colonies of Canada, Australia, and New Zealand?

2. What conflict within Canada made it difficult for it to gain self-rule?

3. What reforms did Lord Durham recommend for Canada?

4. What relationship with Britain did Canada have when it joined with Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in 1867?

5. Who were the original inhabitants of Australia and New Zealand?

6. How did the British go about populating Australia?

7. What industry developed into Australia's biggest business?

8. What political reforms did Australia and New Zealand pioneer?

9. What was the political impact of the Great Famine in Ireland?

10. What would home rule for the Irish mean?
